

A DEEPER EXPERIENCE

SABBATH CELEBRATION, JANUARY 19

Suggested Format for the Final Sabbath

This final Sabbath should be a time of great rejoicing in all that God has done for you and your church during the Ten Days of Prayer. Design your day to celebrate God's goodness and mighty power. Consider how you have experienced the outpouring of the Holy Spirit during the past ten days. This Sabbath is an opportunity to rejoice in what He has done, is doing, and will do.

The needs of each congregation are unique, so please work with local leaders to develop a specific plan for your church. Here are some suggested items to include in your final Sabbath church service.

THEME TEXT

"And this is life eternal, that they may know You, the only true God, and Jesus Christ whom You have sent" (John 17:3).

- Testimonies: Include ample time for testimonies of answered prayer. Those who have participated in the Ten Days of Prayer should have many stories they can share with the congregation, but encourage them to be brief so that everyone can participate. Others may also have stories. It might be good to have some testimonies pre-planned, in addition to having an open sharing time.
- Prayer Time: Invite the whole congregation to join in a time of united prayer. You could lead the congregation through an interactive prayer similar to what you have used throughout the week. You can pray over a specific passage together. This could be done with people in small groups or with everyone praying together. Another option would be to have several different kinds of prayer throughout the service—praying the Scriptures, small-group, individual, congregational, silent, and so on.
- Singing: This is a day to rejoice in all God has done, and music is a great way to celebrate. If a certain song has become a theme song for your group, make sure to sing that with the whole congregation.
- Future Plans: If God has led you toward a special outreach or ministry through the Ten Days of Prayer, let your church family know about your plans and invite them to join in. (Some suggestions are included in the Leader's Guide for the Ten Days of Prayer.)
- Children/Youth: A children's story about prayer would certainly be appropriate. Also, if you have had any children or youth involved with the prayer meetings, have them share their testimonies and/or lead out in a prayer time.
- Flexibility: Make sure to be flexible in your plans so that you can follow the Holy Spirit's leading throughout the service.
